DR. ADEJOH STELLA OJONE

DIRECTOR, MEMBERSHIP SERVICES

DR. STELLA ADEJOH OJONE is a phenomenally outstanding and a decorated public servant par excellence; a quintessential leader; a multi-certified genius and academic; a nonpareil administrative expert, and an archetype of the extraordinary woman. She is a focused goal-crusher with extraordinary skills to materialize future plans best comparable to supernatural clairvoyance.

She was born on 21st October, 1970. She hails from Olamaboro Local Government Area of Kogi State. Laudably, she bagged B.Sc in Agriculture from Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria (1992); Post Graduate Diploma in Banking and Finance from Bayero University, Kano State (2002); Master of Science in Agricultural Extension and Rural Sociology (2007) and a doctorate degree in Agricultural Extension and Rural Sociology (2015), both from Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria, Kaduna State. She is a distinctly great woman with boundless passion for education.

With infectious zest, vivacity and congeniality, she has served unflaggingly in various organisations and held several vital leadership positions. Her trademark of impact and insightfulness has made even her best achievements a creditable norm, proving in all indubitableness that the strength of an empowered woman prevails over customary status quo and is worth lionizing. As early as 1994, she was a Manager at Saida Nigeria Ltd, Kano—unequivocally the best hand the organisation ever had. The work duration tapered to a meaningful end in 2001 when she was made the Research Assistant at Cross Border Trade Research Network, Kano. Her peerless resourcefulness and epitomic professionalism publicized the magnificence of her qualification, worth and eminence. As such, her personality and know-how were sought after amongst several organisations. From Trade Research Network, she further served as Project Officer, Outreach and mobilization, under the World Bank Assisted Poverty Reduction Project in Kogi State between 2002 and 2009; Project Officer, Gender and Vulnerable Group Mainstreaming of the World Bank Assisted Community and Social Development Project (2009-2016), and Director General, Kogi State Bureau of Public Procurement, under the administration of H.E., Alhaji Yahaya Bello, the Governor of Kogi State, between August, 2016 and August, 2020. She also held a transitional position of the acting Operations Manager of the World Bank Assisted Community and Social Development Project in Kogi State, from February to December, 2015. Presently, she is the Kogi State Programme Coordinator for the Federal Government of Nigeria (FGN) and International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD) Value Chain Development Programme (VCDP), as well as an even-handedly and brainily-reputed lecturer at the Department of Agricultural Economics and Extension, Faculty of Agriculture, Federal University, Lafia, Nasarawa State.

Thus far evident, she has over twenty years of first-hand and invaluable experience in the development sector and over eight years in Management and Leadership positions. In the academic world, she also has, to her credit, over fourteen peer-reviewed journals, both locally and internationally. With reverential acknowledgement of her professional essentiality, she is a member of the Nigeria Agricultural Policy Research Network (APRNet), Agricultural Extension Society of Nigeria (AESON), and also a Distinguished Fellow and Director, Membership Services of the Institute of Organisational and Administrative Risk Management (IOARM).

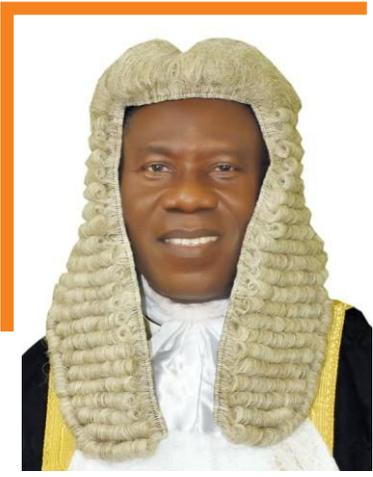

She has attended several consequential trainings both home and abroad—a part of the reasons her proficiency has remained top-notch over the years. Some of these include: Training on Gender Transformation (organised by IFAD Value Chain Development Programme National Office, FADAMA House, 2021); Data Analysis for Decision Making (Coursera, 2020); Effective Public Procurement (2017); Climate Change Education (by UNESCO, Cape Verde: 2014), Certificate in Project Management (Accra, Ghana: 2013) and many others.

Dr. Stella is an iconic woman of substance who values hard work versatility, dynamism and sincerity. She is highly versed and skilled in research and analysis, and project facilitation. She possesses aptitude for rigorous work both at office and field levels, including working with any gender or class of people. She is a fervent Christian, pragmatic and a munificent philanthropist.

GRAND PATRON OF THE INSTITUTE

BABATUNDE ADENIRAN ADEJUMO, OFR

Former President, National Industrial Court of Nigeria (NICN)

HONOURABLE JUSTICE BABATUNDE ADENIRAN ADEJUMO (OFR, MCI Arb, GFISMN, CFAIR, FCI Arb, FNILS, DFIOARM) was born in Ikaram-Akoko, Ondo State on 1st October, 1954. He is the immediate past president of the National Industrial Court of Nigeria. He served as the President of the National Industrial Court of Nigeria between 5th May, 2003 and 30th September, 2019, where he made significant contributions to the development of Labour, Industrial and Employment laws both statutorily and constitutionally in Nigeria. He has developed the labour and work place related jurisprudence in Nigeria. Amongst his many achievements, is the inclusion of the National Industrial Court of Nigeria in the Constitution by virtue of the third alteration which placed the Court at par with the Federal High Court, and the High Courts of the states and that of the Federal Capital Territory (FCT).

Hon. Justice B.A. Adejumo, OFR was a Chief Magistrate in the old Ondo State between 1994 and 1995. He was a Deputy Chief Registrar 1 of the Supreme Court of Nigeria between 1995 and 1998, he was a Secretary Advisory Judicial Committee (AJC) and secretary to the Legal Practitioner Privileges Committee between 1995 and 1998. He became a member of the National Judicial Council (NJC) and Federal Judicial Service Commission in 2010 and 2019 when he bowed out of the judicial service in 2019.

Prior to his appointment as the President of the National Industrial Court of Nigeria, he served in the Ondo State Judiciary as a High Court Judge between 5th November, 1998 and 5th May, 2003. Before his elevation to the High Court Bench, he practiced as a private legal practitioner in Lagos Nigeria for five years between 1986 and 1991. In 1991 he was elected into the old Ondo State House of Assembly where he served as the Chairman, House Committee on Judiciary, Fundamental Human Rights and Public Petitions between November 1994 and December 1995.

Justice Adejumo, OFR, attended and completed his Bachelor of Laws degree program at the University of Ife, Ile-Ife, now Obafemi Awolowo University Ile-Ife Nigeria between 1982 and 1985. He attended the Nigerian Law School, Victoria- Island, Lagos between 1985 and 1986. Since his retirement as the President of the National Industrial Court of Nigeria, he has been actively engaged in Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR). His Lordship honorably retired from judicial service of the nation on 30th Sept, 2019 at the statutory retiring age of 65 years.

When he was appointed as the President of the court, the court was then 25 years old and he met 125 staff of which only 5 were graduates while only 1 staff was on grade level 13. As at the time he retired from service, the total number of staff of the court was about 2,700 of which not less than 600 were graduates. During His Lordship's tenure as the president of the court, he encouraged and promoted manpower development of both junior and senior cadres nationally and internationally. He sponsored staffers of the court to trainings nationally and internationally across continents of the world.

He received scores of Honours and Awards nationally and internationally, to mention few amongst others are:
